Thinking top quality Cucumbers and Capsicums... Think Enza Zaden & Terranova

For over 70 years Enza Zaden have been developing and selling vegetable seed varieties.

Originally based in the Netherlands Enza Zaden now has a number of Research and Development stations all over the world that jointly breed a range of crops for both protected and outdoor cropping.

Cucumbers and Capsicums are both very important breeding programmes for Enza Zaden.

Terranova Seeds is committed to bringing Australian growers the best varieties available for our market.

In recognition of Enza Zaden's strong position in these markets worldwide, and to further develop our local markets, we are pleased to advise that Terranova Seeds will now be marketing a range of Enza Zaden top quality Cucumber and Capsicum varieties in Enza Zaden packaging.
